Letter no. 179 25-12-22 from the Sarvadhikari of the Sri Yatiraja Matt of Melkote (Camp) Bangalore stating that the Swami of the matt has appointed Mr. M. R. Rangachar as his agent for purposes of correspondence with Govt. in succession to the late agent Mr. M. R. Srinivasachar.

The letter appears to have been addressed to Govt. to inform them of the action taken by the Swamy

There appears to be no objection to the Rangachar, who is at present the Asst Secretary to Govt in the Financial Dept, accepting the duties of the agent, which are purely honorary.

Precedents are not wanting.

Mr W. A. Thomas, now Retired as Director of Schools, now retired, was formerly the Head of the Training College, made one recommendation to Government that there should be a Principal, Training College, if a suitable person, preferably Arab could be secured. Since, he is no more Mr W. A. Ramzi has been appointed in his place also Mr. T. Dal Thomas, Retired has been discharging the duties of the Vice-President of the Committee constituted for the running concert of the affairs of the Sir Syndicate Hall?

There are also several other instances of Govt officers discharging concurrent duties in various other capacities, such as Secretaries of clubs etc

Since the Secy. does not object. I do not think the arrangement need be altered. In the case of Prof. Dr. T. Vancouver it was otherwise for the V.C objected to the proposed arrangement.
